WeJourney
Family Ecovillage Immersion
APPLICATION

This application must be completed and sent to us by April 15th, 2020.
Please send it to: info@citeecologiquenh.org

We strongly suggest a visit before any commitment is undertaken, to see if the connection between you and the resident members will naturally be harmonious, and to make sure that if you have any special needs, they can be accommodated.

Here are the two extended weekends we have open for you to visit, and you are welcome to extend your stay up to one week.

First Option - N/A
Second Option - N/A

*Dates for the extended weekend visit will be determined when the program reopens in January 2020.

To be eligible for the program, you must register for our newsletter, fill out this application form and lastly, send us a photo and video of your family, including your intentions to join our community.

RESPONSIBILITIES
Applicants shall not be considered « workers ». You will be “volunteers” and as such, you are not required to perform a certain amount of work. You have the opportunity to learn, live and work with us, but we are not your “employer”. In that sense, you will not be covered by rules and laws regarding labor standards and workers’ compensation. You will not receive any monetary compensation for your participation as a volunteer. However, we hope we can count on your enthusiasm and participation as an invested member.
You will be asked to gauge your physical condition and your skills when you are asked to contribute to specific tasks.

COMMUNITY GUIDELINES
In order to make your stay is safe and pleasant, your family will be asked to follow our guidelines. Please refer to our WeJourney FAQ web page for more details.

Here is a list of our most important rules:

- All our inside and outside premises are NON-SMOKING areas. That includes tobacco, vaping or any other recreational drugs.
- Illegal drugs are prohibited by law. We want to protect our children and there is zero tolerance in that matter.
- Any sign of violence, weapons, verbal abuse or aggressive behavior will not be tolerated.
- You will be required to follow specific rules regarding hygiene (ex.: washing your hands, changing clothes before and/or after certain tasks, etc.)
• Any « denim/ or blue jeans » clothing are prohibited because the production of this fabric is highly toxic.

• Dirty clothes are not allowed in certain community collective areas.
• Follow our dress code during community meals.

PETS
Please refer to our WeJourney FAQ website page for details.

DURING YOUR STAY
One of our members will be assigned to you and/or your family. This person will be your main reference in the community and will be there to support you and answer your questions.

Also, we will provide food and lodging but we may not be able to accommodate all special food restrictions/allergies. Again, visit WeJourney FAQ for details.

HAVE MORE QUESTIONS?
Along with our FAQ, we have a community newsletter that can help you understand some of the key aspects of living in our community.

If you have specific questions, you can contact Leah Vaillant at (603) 237-5041 or via email at: info@citeecologiquenh.org
